A Global Network

FOSTERING ENTREPRENEURSHIP

The World's Largest Entrepreneurial Org

Founded in 1992, The Indus Entrepreneurs (TiE) is a non-profit organization that aims to foster entrepreneurship. With a strong global presence with 61 chapters and over 10,000 members around the world, TiE strives to inspire, nurture, and equip entrepreneurs to create a dynamic entrepreneurial ecosystem.

TiE's mission is to foster entrepreneurship globally through 5 pillars: mentoring, networking, education, incubating, and funding. These pillars are deployed worldwide through a wide network of TiE chapters collaborating to offer programs that support entrepreneurs.

Our initiatives, led by successful entrepreneurs and industry leaders, provide a platform for startup founders, seasoned entrepreneurs, investors, and professionals to connect and build meaningful relationships. Programs like TiE Youth Entrepreneur (TYE), TiE University, and TiE Women represent our commitment to engaging various demographics in entrepreneurship.

At TiE, we believe in the transformative power of entrepreneurship that not only strengthens economies but also fosters innovation and makes the world a better place.

About the TiE SoCal Chapter

TiE SoCal is committed to cultivating and fostering entrepreneurship in Southern California in line with TiE Global's 5 pillar mission. With a comprehensive understanding of the region's unique entrepreneurial challenges, TiE SoCal offers targeted programs and events to create meaningful connections and support across entrepreneurs, investors, and industry professionals.

TiE SoCal's expansive network of charter members, mentors, and student members empowers entrepreneurs with the knowledge, resources, and connections to navigate the ever-evolving business landscape successfully.

Notable TiE SoCal initiatives include Mentor Connect, which exemplifies the organization's dedication to mentoring entrepreneurs and encapsulates the core spirit of giving back to the community. The TiE SoCal Internship Program provides valuable employment and internship opportunities to young and student members, fortifying future generations of entrepreneurs. TiE SoCal Angels (an investment program focused on early-stage startups) invests in promising startups, ensuring early access to high-potential opportunities through an active screening process led by a successful and experienced team.
